

NEIGHBORING

around the HOLIDAYS

REMEMBER

- God has placed you for a purpose. Your address is not an accident.
- He is already at work in your neighborhood and wants to use you to love your neighbors and show Christ's love to them.
- Difficult circumstances, feelings of grief, isolation and loneliness can feel magnified over the holidays. A simple demonstration of God's kindness can go a long way.

PRAY

- For genuine and real connections to be made through these touchpoints
- That neighbors feel seen by you and ultimately by God
- That your neighbors would see & sense God's love through you

BEGIN

- Check Online Neighboring Forums (Facebook page or Next Door) for events or post your own idea
- Drop off a Christmas card and/or baked good not as an end in itself but as an invitation for further connection

INVITE

- Dessert/ Movie Night or Open House
- Put up lights or Door Decorations together
- Progressive Dinner
- "You've Been Elfed"
- Shovel Snow Together
- Turkey Trot or Candy Cane Dash
